Foundation String Quartet

Ben Jacobsen and Ian Meyer - violin
Brody Knaak/Zachary Jacobsen - viola, Connor Peterson - cello

Made up of Nebraska's top high-school string players, the Foundation String Quartet has experience playing formats ranging from intimate settings to auditoriums of 600 people and are sure to deliver an outstanding performance for your special occasion. Our repertoire includes classical pieces, hymns, and modern songs to fit any style of event.

Member Qualifications: All members of our quartet were members of the 2019 Nebraska's All-State Orchestra and current members of the Lincoln Youth Orchestra.

History: The Foundation Quartet was started in 2019 as an ensemble group at the Nissa String Studio. Since then, they have performed at the East High School Orchestra Cadenza Concert, Eastmont Nursing home, and the LPS Ensemble Festival. They received accolades for performing the Borodin's String Quartet #2, movement 3 (Nocturne).
